CONTROLLING YOUR DOG IN PUBLIC

OVERVIEW

It's against the law to let a dog be dangerously out of control anywhere, such as:

- In a public place
- In a private place, for example a neighbour's house or garden
- In the owner's home
- The law applies to all dogs. Out of control

Your dog is considered dangerously out of control if it:

- Injures someone
- Makes someone worried that it might injure them

A court could also decide that your dog is dangerously out of control if either of the following apply:

- It attacks someone's animal
- The owner of an animal thinks they could be injured if they tried to stop your dog attacking their animal
- A farmer is allowed to kill your dog if it's worrying their livestock

Penalties:

- You can get an unlimited fine or be sent to prison for up to 6 months (or both) if your dog is dangerously out of control. You may not be allowed to own a dog in the future and your dog may be destroyed.
- If you let your dog injure someone you can be sent to prison for up to 5 years or fined (or both). If you deliberately use your dog to injure someone you could be charged with 'malicious wounding'.
- If you allow your dog to kill someone you can be sent to prison for up to 14 years or get an unlimited fine (or both).
- If you allow your dog to injure an assistance dog (for example a guide dog) you can be sent to prison for up to 3 years or fined (or both).
