

SUGGESTIONS AND COMMENTS MADE IN RESPONSE TO QUESTION 8

Regular coffee mornings for older residents

More family run events

Socialising with the locals

Concern - the pub's facilities aren't great - small, not much outdoor space or parking to make it viable to attract more than just locals which it needs in order to do well. It has no damp course and flooding is only going to increase in the future. Being left empty for a long time is only going to mean it degrades more and becomes an eyesore. Would it not be better to let this develop into a smart house to solve this issue? People could meet in the village hall for social events and if there is a demand for community initiatives they could keep the hall running better instead of investing in this? Surely preferable to starting up opposing things which could lead to both failing?

Local hub for Neighbourhood Watch

Possible replacement shop / PO if Smithy Shop was ever to close. Even on p/t openings

Leisure classes

Helpful Services

Charity fund raising events and Xmas dinner for the local elderly residents

Just a good pub with good food!

Private parties, fundraisers

Open in the week for coffee/ tea so people can meet for business and social groups

General gathering together

Children's activities

Anything that makes it the hub of the community and gets locals together

There's no pub where we live in Worthenbury and it's a lovely walk to the Queens Head where we often enjoyed a drink or a meal

It shouldn't compete with The Lion etc but should specialise eg Sussex Brewery, gourmet local sausages. Do one thing very well!!

Open for coffee in the morning occasionally

If enough room, then typical pub games

OAP Lunches / dinners, Committee meetings etc.

Toddler groups

Meetings of local groups, meeting venue for passing trade eg local cyclists, Lands End to John O'Groats cyclists and more.

It could be used as a local shop. Or it could act as a cafe in the morning and pub at night. Other businesses such as caterers may like to use the kitchen space during the day when the pub isn't serving food

Pensioners' lunch, pensioners' Christmas dinner

Coffee mornings for AOPs and young mothers

If the community buys the pub then I would like to see it used for any activity in the community for which it is suited without those activities damaging its main function which has served the community, surrounding area and visitors since 1800

Potential other activities could include: Cyclist Cafe (Cheshire Cycleway goes through Threapwood); outlet for local produce and craft; offsite bar service at individual or community events

Would be better as a coffee shop/cafe/takeaway

Maybe it could host Xmas evenings. These used to be in Tallarn Green village hall and they were well attended. Maybe BBQ events, beer/gin Festival ???

Club meetings. For example play group, art classes, book reviews, guest speakers, talks

Daytime groups eg mother and toddler, OAP lunches, family events such as Halloween activities

Farm shop

Farm shop

As a focal place for community history and visitors and hikers. I'm writing a book on the village so am very interested in my ancestors who once ran the Queens Head

Light snacks, breakfasts

A shop

Micro brewery

A focus for the community including sport activities. A hub for older residents and families. Multigenerational activities

An outlet for selling local produce and crafts.

Not sure what you mean by this question, other than those listed above

Hobby group meetings eg bridge

Different hobby clubs

Promoting local businesses to bring in new customers eg local artists' work up on the wall to sell. Make it a talking point

Families made welcome with children

Coffee/tea shop for daytime meet ups, for locals, walkers and cyclists

Meetings

Tourist information

Community shop? Eg hub for locals to sell/advertise produce
