SPEEDING TRAFFIC IN THE VILLAGE

- 107 Cllr Whitehurst made the meeting aware that a Malpas Ward Speed Watch group existed.

There were only two trained Threapwood residents on the group, so time on roadside monitoring was limited.

Council debated speeding traffic in the village and agreed to advertise for volunteers to train to use the speed gun and SIDs equipment.

Angela Griffiths (PCSO) said that she would conduct some monitoring of speeds in the village and could arrange the loan of the SIDs equipment if required.

The meeting closed at 8:10 pm

The next meeting November 30th 2022
